

Tracker page for _____

I have completed this level on a2bsafely.com. Now I need your help. Please read my Tracker page with me and talk to me about it. It will help me to remember what I have learned. Encourage me to learn about road safety.

Being seen

Make sure that you wear something bright so that traffic can see you.

Stop, think, look and listen

Stop at the kerb. Think about where you are. Look around and listen for traffic.

Using a pedestrian bridge

Look around you. If there is a bridge nearby use it. It is safer.

Hearing traffic

Some roads are much more busy with traffic. Listen carefully for traffic sounds.

Green man

If the red man is showing press the button and wait for the green man.

Next steps

You are beginning to learn but you are not ready to go on the road on your own. You need someone to help you to practise. This could be someone in your family who looks after you, a teacher or a responsible family friend. Show them your Tracker page or ask them to log on to www.a2bsafely.com In this way you are helping them, to help you.

Tracker page for _____

I have completed this level on a2bsafely.com. Now I need your help. Please read my Tracker page with me and talk to me about it. It will help me to remember what I have learned. Encourage me to learn about road safety.

Making good choices

The road is busy. You choose a safer place to cross. There is a traffic light crossing nearby.

Taking your time

It is better to walk to a safer crossing place than to take a chance because you are in a hurry.

Red man

The road is clear of traffic but the red man is still showing. Always wait for the green man before you cross.

Distraction

When you see a friend on the opposite pavement you should still take your time and cross safely.

Stop, think, look and listen

Stop at the kerb. Think about your surroundings, look both ways and listen for the traffic noise of car engines.

Next steps

You are beginning to learn but you are not ready to go on the road on your own. You need someone to help you to practise. This could be someone in your family who looks after you, a teacher or a responsible family friend. Show them your Tracker page or ask them to logon to www.a2bsafely.com In this way you are helping them, to help you.

Tracker page for _____

I have completed this level on a2bsafely.com. Now I need your help. Please read my Tracker page with me and talk to me about it. It will help me to remember what I have learned. Encourage me to learn about road safety.

Stop, think, look and listen

Stop at the kerb. Think about your surroundings. Look both ways and listen for traffic.

Dropping something

If you drop something onto a busy road leave it there.

Distractions

Always stay on the pavement and move back from roadside to use your mobile phone.

Crossing without the help of a green man

Stop, think, look and listen. Make sure there is no traffic before you cross. You have to be extra careful here.

Distractions

Do not be tempted to read or send a text message whilst you are crossing the road. It is dangerous.

Next steps

You are beginning to learn but you are not ready to go on the road on your own. You need someone to help you to practise. This could be someone in your family who looks after you, a teacher or a responsible family friend. Show them your Tracker page or ask them to log on to www.a2bsafely.com In this way you are helping them, to help you.

Tracker page for _____

I have completed this level on a2bsafely.com. Now I need your help. Please read my Tracker page with me and talk to me about it. It will help me to remember what I have learned. Encourage me to learn about road safety.

Making judgement

You are learning to judge if a road is safe to cross. Stop, think, look and listen.

The green man

Even when the green man is showing it is important to check that the traffic has stopped.

Making judgements

You see a car that is indicating what the driver intends to do. Wait on the kerb until the car moves off.

Making judgements

Some drivers do not indicate what they intend to do. It is important not to guess what the car will do. Wait on the kerb until the car moves off.

Crossing near a roundabout

Stop, think, look and listen.. This is a difficult place to cross. You must look all around you.

Next steps

You are beginning to learn but you are not ready to go on the road on your own. You need someone to help you to practise. This could be someone in your family who looks after you, a teacher or a responsible family friend. Show them your Tracker page or ask them to log on to www.a2bsafely.com In this way you are helping them, to help you.

