

An aerial photograph of a street scene. A dark grey car is parked on the pavement, partially overlapping a red brick curb. To the left of the car, a person wearing a blue raincoat and an orange beanie is pushing a red stroller. The pavement is dark and scattered with fallen brown leaves. The overall scene illustrates the concept of pavement parking.

Pavement parking is unsafe, unfair and illegal.

And you risk getting fined up to £100.

roadsafety.scot

Safer Scotland
Scottish Government